If you’re thinking about moving into a nursing home, make sure that you consider all your options first! And, even if you’re already in a nursing home, you still have choices. You may be able to move into a different living situation that you find more enjoyable and less expensive.

Providing you with helpful information about the many choices that are available to you is what the Options Counseling for Long-Term Care program is all about.

Through Options Counseling, you’ll learn about the different Choices in Living programs. Each one is designed to provide a different level of care depending on your individual needs. And, best of all, you receive this care while you continue to live in your own community around friends and family.

So, a nursing home is definitely not your only option.

In fact, the Choices in Living programs are all alternatives to living in a nursing home. And, each one is considerably less expensive than nursing home care.

Most people don’t want to live in a nursing home if they don’t have to, and medical studies support them. These studies show that people tend to stay healthier and happier longer when they remain in their homes or communities.

Please take a few minutes to read about the Choices in Living programs. They give you some very good options to living in an institution.
Here’s a brief description of each Choices in Living program to help you find the one that’s best for you:

► ElderChoices
  For individuals 65 and older. You receive the care you need in your home and community while you live independently or with family.

► Alternatives for Adults with Physical Disabilities
  You arrange for your own care and possible modifications to your home, while you live independently or with family.

► Living Choices (Assisted Living)
  For individuals 65 or older, or over 21 and blind or physically disabled. You live in apartment-style housing with 24-hour support services, supervision and personal care.

► IndependentChoices
  For individuals over 18 who need the services of a personal caregiver. You arrange for your own care and receive a direct cash allowance to pay for it, while you live independently or with family.

► Personal Care
  Individuals of any age may qualify for Personal Care, as long as you have a medical need for help in bathing, dressing, preparing meals, etc. The care you need is arranged for you and provided while you live independently or with family.
“But, I don’t want to be a burden.”

Other Services
These include Targeted Case Management, where experienced case managers help you receive the personal services, medical equipment and supplies you may need.

About ElderChoices
This program offers in-home and community-based care while you live independently or with family. As its name suggests, it is designed primarily for the elderly.

ElderChoices takes the worry out of trying to arrange for the services you need. The program provides a high level of care to keep you healthy and living in familiar and comfortable surroundings.

ElderChoices provides the following services:

✓ Nutritious, prepared meals delivered to your home (when you can’t prepare your own meals and don’t have someone available to do it for you)

✓ Help with laundry, shopping, errands, simple household tasks and meal preparation

✓ The opportunity to make new friends during supervised adult day care

Enjoyable activities to keep you fit and healthy at adult day health care

Regular visits from agency workers to give your family and friends time to rest and relax from the responsibilities of your care

Enrollment in the Personal Emergency Response System (PERS) to give you peace of mind in knowing that help is always available

Participation in the Adult Foster Care program. This provides a safe family living environment where you receive the help that you need, if you can’t live alone and have serious health issues

Eligibility

To be eligible for ElderChoices, you must:

- Be age 65 or older

- Require nursing home intermediate level of care (The definition of this term can be found on page 18).

- Have a maximum income of no more than three times the SSI (Supplemental Security Income) rate, which changes annually. This year’s amount can be found in the printed insert on the inside back cover of this booklet.

- Have a medical need for at least one of the ElderChoices services
Alternatives

“I use a wheelchair now, but my house wasn’t designed for that.”

About Alternatives for Adults with Physical Disabilities

Alternatives is a program designed specifically for adults with physical disabilities. The program allows you to direct the type of care that you receive, since you know your needs better than anyone.

The goal of Alternatives is to enable you to live independently, and to continue to enjoy the companionship of your friends and loved ones.

Alternatives provides the following services:

- Help with normal daily activities from a caregiver of your choice
- Case managers to help you hire, train, supervise and manage your caregiver
- Physical modifications or changes to your home to improve accessibility and increase your independence

Eligibility

To be eligible for Alternatives, you must:

- Be between the ages of 21 and 64
- Be declared physically disabled

About Living Choices (also known as Assisted Living)

Living Choices allows you to live in apartment-style housing with 24-hour supervision, support services and health care when living on your own or with family is not an option.

With this program, you make your own decisions and live independently, while receiving the care and support that you need. You also have the opportunity to socialize and make new friends with those living near you.

Living Choices provides the following services:

Living Choices offers many services to keep you healthy and happy. For example, if you need help getting around, bathing, toileting or eating and drinking, a trained individual at the residence is always available to help you. That’s comforting to know.

Other services and supports include:

- ✓ Social activities at your residence
- ✓ Help with medications
- ✓ Transportation
- ✓ And, much more

About Options Counseling

Options Counseling is administered by the Arkansas Department of Human Services, Division of Aging and Adult Services, to help individuals stay independent and still get the assistance that they need.

Options Counseling is a free service. However, the programs available through Options Counseling are paid for by the Arkansas Medicaid program.

About Medicaid

Medicaid is a joint, federal/state program that is designed to pay for long-term care for older Americans with lower incomes and higher health-care expenses.

To qualify for Medicaid, you must meet specific income and asset limits.

More about the Choices in Living programs

If you feel that one of these programs might benefit you, please contact the Choices in Living Resource Center at 1-866-801-3435.

You will be asked to provide information regarding your needs, medical history, finances and other information. This information is necessary so that the Department of Human Services representative can guide you to the program that is best suited to you. Rest assured, the information that you provide will be kept strictly confidential.

Some questions that you will be asked include:

- What is your income?
- What are your total assets?
- Do you own your own house or rent?

So, please have this information available when you call.

Depending on your specific circumstances, the DHS representative will explain how to apply for a program, or refer you to a nurse or other office to obtain more detailed information.
