November 14th Meeting Topic:

New NLR Vets Home

Speaker: Kathie Gately, Administrator

Kathie Gately, Administrator for the new Arkansas State Veterans Home at North Little Rock will bring us up to date on its introduction to the veterans care arena. The new home replaces the former home in Little Rock shuttered in October 2012.

Gately, a former nursing home administrator, was selected after a nation-wide search conducted by a task force comprised of experts in the long-term care field; including the Department of Veterans Affairs, Arkansas Veterans Commission, Arkansas Advocates for Nursing Home Residents, and experts within ADVA.

Gately has been employed by the Arkansas Department of Human Services, Division of Aging and Adult services, since 2000. She held a position as an adult protective consultant before being appointed State long-term care Ombudsman in 2003. In her role, she developed a statewide expansion program for Certified Volunteer long-term care Ombudsmen (CVO) increasing the number of CVOs in the state from three to over 350 active CVOs.

Gately has over 25 years of experience in social work and advocacy for long term care patients in both the public and private sectors. She holds a Bachelor's in social work from Arkansas State University.

The Arkansas State Veterans Home at North Little Rock (ASVH-NLR) is the first Veterans home in Arkansas developed from the ground-up for the sole purpose of long-term care for Veterans. It will serve Veterans, Veterans' spouses, and Gold Star family members.

ASVH-NLR is a "small home" design with eight individual homes that serve 12 residents each. Each resident will have a private room and private bathroom. Less than one percent of long-term care facilities across the nation are built and operated as small homes. The small home concept seeks to de-institutionalize care and provide a warm, home-like environment in a setting that encourages social activity.

Please join us for this informative update on care for our military veterans and their spouses at 11:00 AM on November 14th. This will be our last meeting until January.

From the President's Desk Martha Deaver

What are Residents' Rights?

Residents' Rights Guarantee Quality of Life

The 1987 Nursing Home Reform Law requires each nursing home to care for its residents in a manner that promotes and enhances the quality of life of each resident, ensuring dignity, choice, and self-determination.

All nursing homes are required "to provide services and activities to attain or maintain the highest practicable physical, mental, and psychosocial well-being of each resident in accordance with a written plan of care that... is initially prepared, with participation, to the extent practicable, of the resident, the resident's family, or legal representative." This means a resident should not decline in health or well-being as a result of the way a nursing facility provides care.

The 1987 Nursing Home Reform Law protects the following rights of nursing home residents:

The Right to Be Fully Informed of

- Available services and the charges for each service
- Facility rules and regulations, including a written copy of resident rights
- Address and telephone number of the State Ombudsman and state survey agency
- State survey reports and the nursing home's plan of correction
- Advance plans of a change in rooms or roommates
- Assistance if a sensory impairment exists
- Residents have a right to receive information in a language they understand (Spanish, Braille, etc.)

Right to Complain

- Present grievances to staff or any other person, without fear of reprisal and with prompt efforts by the facility to resolve those grievances
- To complain to the ombudsman program
- To file a complaint with the state survey and certification agency

Right to Participate in One's Own Care

- Receive adequate and appropriate care
- Be informed of all changes in medical condition
- Participate in their own assessment, care-planning, treatment, and discharge
- Refuse medication and treatment
- Refuse chemical and physical restraints
- Review one's medical record
- Be free from charge for services covered by Medicaid or Medicare

Right to Privacy and Confidentiality

- Private and unrestricted communication with any person of their choice
- During treatment and care of one's personal needs
- Regarding medical, personal, or financial affairs

Rights During Transfers and Discharges

- Remain in the nursing facility unless a transfer or discharge:
 - (a) is necessary to meet the resident's welfare;
 - (b) is appropriate because the residents health has improved and s/he no longer requires nursing home care;
 - (c) is needed to protect the health and safety of other residents or staff;
 - (d) is required because the resident has failed, after reasonable notice, to pay the facility charge for an item or service provided at the resident's request
- Receive thirty-day notice of transfer or discharge which includes the reason, effective date, location to which the resident is transferred or discharged, the right to appeal, and the name, address, and telephone number of the state long-term care ombudsman
- Safe transfer or discharge through sufficient preparation by the nursing home

Right to Dignity, Respect, and Freedom

- To be treated with consideration, respect, and dignity
- To be free from mental and physical abuse, corporal punishment, involuntary seclusion, and physical and chemical restraints
- To self-determination
- Security of possessions

Right to Visits

- By a resident's personal physician and representatives from the state survey agency and ombudsman programs
- By relatives, friends, and others of the residents' choosing
- By organizations or individuals providing health, social, legal, or other services
- Residents have the right to refuse visitors

Right to Make Independent Choices

- Make personal decisions, such as what to wear and how to spend free time
- Reasonable accommodation of one's needs and preferences
- Choose a physician
- Participate in community activities, both inside and outside the nursing home
- Organize and participate in a Resident Council
- Manage one's own financial affairs
