AANHR's Mission Statement:

"To protect and improve the quality of care and life for residents in Arkansas nursing homes."

March 10 Meeting Topic: Certified Volunteer Ombudsman Goals 2014

Speaker: Kathie Gately, AR State Ombudsman

Are you familiar with the role a Certified Volunteer Ombudsman plays in your local nursing home? Do you have two or three hours per week that you would be willing to spend with nursing home residents who would love to have a listening ear? If so you will gain valuable insights on serving our sometimes forgotten seniors by attending our March 10th AANHR meeting where Kathi Gately will share her 2014 goals for the Volunteer Ombudsman program in Arkansas.

Kathie received her Bachelor's degree in Social Work from Arkansas State University, beginning her career by holding positions within the long-term care facility environment. She then transitioned to Adult Protective Services within the Department of Human Services.

Since 2003, Kathi has served Arkansas long-term care residents as the State Long-Term Care Ombudsman, where she has dedicated more than 30 years of experience in the long-term care field to advocating for the rights of all older Arkansans in long-term care. She received the Cernoria Johnson Memorial Advocacy Award in 2009, including supportive recommendations from Attorney General Dustin McDaniel and Governor Mike Beebe.

Through consistent recruitment, training, inclusion and recognition, the Certified Volunteer LTC Ombudsman program has certified 725 volunteers with 365 active volunteers working today. Kathie Gately states, "certified volunteers are critical to those we serve as they are an extension, the eyes and ears, of the Regional LTC Ombudsman. They assist the Regional Ombudsman by having the capability of tangible outreach through weekly visits."

Please join us on Monday, March 10th, as Kathie shares her 2014 goals for our advocates for family members in nursing homes in the ongoing struggle to improve quality of life for nursing home residents in their later years.

From the President's Desk . . . Martha Deaver

It is always shocking for me/AANHR to FOI the "Professional Liability Insurance Cost Reports," which AR nursing homes are reimbursed for each year. Nursing home owners' premiums go up because they continue to give bad care. Being cited for poor care also means they are violating state and federal laws. Tax payers' dollars (state & federal) pay for the reimbursement to protect the nursing home administration from the results of its poor care, to the tune of millions of dollars each year. Please take a few minutes to look over the spreadsheet on pages 4-5.

Most of us carry liability insurance on our vehicles and homes. This covers us if a visitor falls at our home and sustains injury or if we are involved in an auto accident. Our insurance coverage pays medical bills for visitors' injuries or to repair our car, sometimes the other car(s) involved, and any personal injury caused inadvertently by us, the driver. As responsible citizens we provide for the protection of our persons and our property. The difference between us and nursing homes is that we personally pay for our insurance premiums for our protection. If we are irresponsible enough to receive a DUI or other infraction naturally our insurance premiums rise.

In the case of nursing home owners, premiums are also personally paid by us citizens through taxation that supports Medicaid. The cost for most (not all) nursing home residents' care is paid under Medicaid. Nursing home liability insurance might involve various categories of coverage such as injury accidents that visitors incur, transport van accidents, along with abuse and neglect to residents.

We have a cycle going within the nursing home industry. Medicaid reimburses for care (including liability insurance premiums); the nursing home doesn't always give good care; abuse and neglect occur; so liability insurance premiums rise thus requiring more tax dollars spent. If resident care improved, premiums could be reduced, resulting in tax savings in the federal/state budget. In a time of record deficits/national debt would that not be a welcome set of circumstances.

AANHR believes that AR nursing homes should be required to carry liability insurance. We do not believe that taxpayers should be paying to protect nursing home owners when abuse, neglect, and death of our most frail and vulnerable citizens occurs. The total reimbursement to Arkansas nursing homes from this June 30, 2013 report, according to this spreadsheet, was $23, 372, 143. Now, that is a lot of tax dollars spent!

Volunteer Ombudsmen Needed

Regardless of whether or not you end up becoming a volunteer ombudsman, your knowledge will increase greatly by attending an ombudsman training session. Volunteer Ombudsman training takes only one day and can make an incredible difference in the life of a nursing home resident. A volunteer ombudsman is authorized to help the residents with any concerns. Protecting the resident's rights is a priority. The volunteer ombudsman is authorized to take complaints and report things they see that are questionable to their regional ombudsman, who can take steps to remedy the situation. A volunteer ombudsman can make a big difference brightening the life of a nursing home resident. After the day of training and a short orientation period one can become a Certified Ombudsman and can choose to be assigned to a specific nursing home where just two hours service per week is expected. If interested, please contact Martha Deaver at 501-450-9619; she will put you in touch with your regional ombudsman.

"Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves, for the rights of all who are destitute. Speak up and judge fairly; defend the rights of the poor and needy." Proverbs 31:8 NIV

CRANKY OLD MAN

This poem is said to be authored by an anonymous elderly gentleman, living in an Australian nursing home.

What do you see nurses? What do you see?
What are you thinking .. . when you're looking at me?
A cranky old man, not very wise,
Uncertain of habit with faraway eyes?
Who dribbles his food and makes no reply.
When you say in a loud voice . 'I do wish you'd try!'
Who seems not to notice . . .the things that you do.
And forever is losing A sock or shoe?
Who, resisting or not lets you do as you will,
With bathing and feedingThe long day to fill?
Is that what you're thinking?. .Is that what you see?
Then open your eyes, nurse .you're not looking at me.
I'll tell you who I am As I sit here so still,
As I do at your bidding, as I eat at your will.
I'm a small child of Ten . .with a father and mother,
Brothers and sisters who love one another
A young boy of Sixteen with wings on his feet
Dreaming that soon now a lover he'll meet.
A groom soon at Twentymy heart gives a leap.
Remembering, the vowsthat I promised to keep.
At Twenty-Five, nowI have young of my own.
Who need me to guide . . . And a secure happy home.
A man of Thirty My young now grown fast.
Bound to each other With ties that should last.

At Forty, my young sons .. have grown and are gone,
But my woman is beside me . . to see I don't mourn.
At Fifty, once more, Babies play 'round my knee,
Again, we know children My loved one and me.
Dark days are upon me My wife is now dead.
I look at the future I shudder with dread.
For my young are all rearing young of their own.
And I think of the years . . . And the love that I've known.
I'm now an old man and nature is cruel.
It's jest to make old age look like a fool.
The body, it crumbles grace and vigour, depart.
There is now a stone . . . where I once had a heart.
But inside this old carcass . A young man still dwells,
And now and again my battered heart swells
I remember the joys I remember the pain.
And I'm loving and living life over again.
I think of the years, all too few . . . gone too fast.
And accept the stark fact . . . that nothing can last.
So open your eyes, people open and see.
Not a cranky old man.
Look closer see ME!!

After the man passed away, the nurses at the care home where he resided allegedly found this unpublished poem among his possessions. They were so inspired by its contents that they felt compelled to share his words with the world.

To be sure, this piece presents a poignant examination of the unforgiving, un-halting progress of life, to mention the sense of invisibility felt by many older people. But, there's more to the story behind this verse than most of its readers realize. What do you see?
